Mr. Perkins reviewed the history of Federal regulation in this country and said that in the last three years complete reversal in the Federal programme seems to have taken place. Instead of even attempting to enact legislation to regulate and control our great interstate and international agencies of trade the legislative formational agencies of trade the legislative formation of our Government shirked and introduced the toastmaster. He called him a Sioux name. Lopi-ota, which means Heap Big Talk, and told him firmly that the Camp Fire Club would not stand for much speech making on his part. Then Mr. Beard as president of the duty he conceived to be upon the people. He conducted Harper's Weekly with a democratic dignity which was not even to be repudiated by Princeton."

And then, turning to Mr. Mable, who sat at his right, he remarked that he wendered whether the optimistic name of the Outlook would have to be changed to the more imperative Lookout.

DON'T LIKE EQUAL PAY LAW.

Women Teachers Complain That They Get Less Salary Than Before.

The Interborough Association of Women Teachers met last night in the hall on the eleventh floor of the Metropolitan Life Building and talked and talked. There were about 700 there First they talked about the new equal pay bill. They decided there was something wrong with it, but decided to leave alone for the present.

Miss M. Grace Strachan, the president, said she knew there was general dissatisfaction with the new law because teachers who used to get $800, counting the bonus for teaching mixed classes, now got only $780, and the Board of Education said that the bonus wasn't salary anyhow, so that their salary hadn't been lowered.
